Programs and Events

Get ready to shine, Spruce Grove!

Spread some holiday cheer as Central Park is transformed into a sparkling spectacle of light! The annual Light Up celebration is Saturday, Nov. 28 from 3-6:30 p.m. Get into the holiday spirit with free, family-friendly activities including games, crafts, horse-drawn wagon rides, photos with Santa, a community market, free public skating, and an outdoor dance party! If you're able, please bring a new, unwrapped toy, gift card, or a cash donation to support the Kinette Club of Spruce Grove's Christmas Hampers. Details at sprucegrove.org/LightUp.

November is Family Violence Prevention Month

Attend the A Community Empowered Resource Expo and learn about family violence prevention resources available in the Tri Region and where to turn to when you need help.

News You Can Use

New scattering garden at Pioneer Cemetery

The City has opened a new scattering garden at Pioneer Cemetery, providing families and friends with a peaceful, natural setting to honour and remember loved ones.

The scattering garden provides a dedicated space for families to scatter loved one's ashes in a natural setting, with optional memorial plaques available. Learn more at sprucegrove.org/PioneerCemetery.

Monthly winter organics collection begins

Green organics carts are collected once per month in December, January, February and March. Weekly organics collection will resume the week of April 13, 2027. Use the Trim Your Trash app to subscribe to waste collection reminders and learn how to reduce food waste. More info at sprucegrove.org/Organics.

Council Meetings
