

Regional Housing Guide

SPRUCE GROVE, STONY PLAIN, PARKLAND COUNTY

The Regional Housing Guide: Spruce Grove, Stony Plain, Parkland County is a regional collaboration to provide residents or potential residents of the Tri Municipal Region with an overview of housing options in our communities.

Our region consists of three municipalities that share services while maintaining distinct community cultures.

Spruce Grove is a vibrant, dynamic city of just over 36,000 residents. Located approximately 11 kilometres west of Edmonton. It boasts a mix of industry, commerce and community that make Spruce Grove a great place to live, work and experience community.

Stony Plain is a town located just west of Spruce Grove with a steadily growing community that cherishes its past while maintaining a progressive vision for its future. Well-known for festivals and community events such as the Blueberry Bluegrass Festival, Aboriginal Days, and Alberta Culture Days, residents enjoy an extensive trail system, arts and cultural amenities and a vibrant, historic downtown core.

Parkland County is a rural municipality located immediately west of Edmonton. Covering an area of 242,595 hectares (599,500 acres), it is one of the largest in size and one of the highest populated of all rural municipalities in Alberta. Parkland County has grown to a community of over 30,000 people and has seen generations of families continue to enjoy country living.
