Spruce Grove's biggest Canada Day celebration is at Jubilee Park!

Join us Wednesday, July 1 as we celebrate Canada's 159th birthday at Jubilee Park! There's something for everyone including food trucks and a community market, children's entertainment and Pop-up Playground, mobile escape room and games tent, Full Send BMX Stunt Show, and great musical entertainment on the main stage including headliner Tim & The Glory Boys and opening acts The Heels and Achilles Last Stand! Stick around after the show for an incredible fireworks display high above Jubilee Park (weather permitting)!

Fuel up at the Canada Day pancake breakfast!

Before you head to the park, fuel up for the day at the Canada Day Pancake Breakfast at the Protective Services building (36 Fifth Avenue). $5/plate or $20/family in partnership with Knights of Columbus.

Be sure to bring a used sports equipment donation for SportCentral, to help ensure kids from families facing financial hardships can participate in sports. Donations are collected at the Pancake Breakfast only, not on site at Jubilee Park. See the list of accepted items and all the Canada Day details at sprucegrove.org/CanadaDay.
